Happenings

- MAP (Women and Minorities in Philosophy)
MAP will have their first event of the year on Nov. 3rd. Kate Finley lead the discussion on “harmful mind sets, threats, and biases” toward minorities in Philosophy.
- Mentor Program
Are you an undergrad that could benefit from having a graduate student mentor? Here’s your opportunity! Sign up via this google form, and you and your mentor will meet informally based on your schedule. In these one-on-one meetings, you can talk about what philosophical thoughts you’ve had lately, your experience in the classroom at Notre Dame, your career plans, and whatever else you and your mentor deem useful! Take advantage!
- Grad Directory
The 2016-17 Grad Directory will be out this week! If you’re a grad student, one will be placed in your mailbox. If you don’t receive one, or want one, please see Christine.

SPORTS

The Philosophy Department CoRec football team, the Philosoraptors, finished their regular season with a 3-1 record. Their league-leading defense secured the team’s position as division leaders and catapulted them into the playoffs. Though the league is particularly talented this year, Coach-Captain Finocchiaro expects his team to go far.

Come cheer on the Philosoraptors at their first playoff game tomorrow, Tuesday 11/1, 9pm, at the LaBar fields.
