Other Teaching

The Structure of Time, Divisibility and Causation (with Sara Bernstein) Master class, Center for Philosophy of Time, University of Milan, June 2017.

I have convened 3 undergraduate courses at ANU without teaching in them: convening in these circumstances involves arranging for PhD students to teach the courses and staying in touch with them about any challenges that arise. I convened PHIL1005 Logic and Critical Thinking in semester 2 2012; PHIL2082 Philosophy of Biology in semester 2 2013, and PHIL1004 Fundamental Ideas in Philosophy in semester 1 2014.

Basic Logic (a remedial logic course for M. Litt students) (F2004 University of St Andrews)
Masters Qualifying course on Laws of Nature (August-December 1997 Macquarie University)

Supervision and Individual Teaching

Primary supervisor of two PhD student at Notre Dame from February 2017, May 2018, and co-supervisor of a third from November 2018.

I was chair of committee (i.e. supervisor) of five research postgraduate students at ANU: one from September 2011 to August 2014 on the metaphysics of time (awarded MPhil), a second from November 2011 to September 2014 on modal epistemology (awarded MPhil), a third from February 2012 to October 2015 on theories of subject matter and mental content (awarded PhD), a fourth from March 2012 to December 2016 on agent-relativity in meta-ethics (awarded PhD), and a fifth (co-supervisor from August 2016) from May 2013 until February 2018 (awarded PhD).

I was a supervisor for three PhD candidates at the University of St Andrews. I was co-supervisor for one on the metaphysics of vagueness (from Sept 2004 to Sept 2006); and primary supervisor for one year each for candidates working on the limits of possibility (from Sept 2005 to Sept 2006); and on counterfactual theories of causation (from Sept 2005 - Sept 2006).

I was acting supervisor of one PhD candidate on personal identity (Sept 2005 - Jan 2006 University of St Andrews). I co-supervised two PhD candidates at the University of Nottingham in January-June 2010: one working on de re modality, and one working on the experimental philosophy challenge to reliance on intuitions.

I supervised five M. Litt dissertations, on the connectionist/language of thought debate; contemporary non-naturalism in ethics; and on truthmakers and moral realism (all S2004 University of St Andrews); on the semantic/metasemantic distinction (S2005 University of St Andrews), and on analyticity and the a priori (S2006 University of St Andrews).

I am currently on the dissertation committee of two other PhD students at the ANU in philosophy (1 from semester 2 2012, 1 from semester 2 2016), and I am an associate supervisor for one student at the University of Queensland (from November 2018).

I have previously served on a further 14 dissertation committees: 4 at Notre Dame; 7 in philosophy at ANU; 1 in the Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies at ANU; 1 at the University of California at Davis (external member); 1 at the University of Miami (external member). I was also on the dissertation defence committee of one PhD student at Syracuse (external member).

I supervised one student doing orals exam preparation at Notre Dame (Fall 2019), and co-supervised another (Spring 2017), I supervised one student preparing for a dissertation proposal defense (Fall 2016), and co-supervised another (Spring 2018), I served on two additional dissertation proposal committee at Notre Dame (Fall 2016, Fall 2018), and four additional orals defense committees at Notre Dame (Fall 2016, Fall 2017, 2 in Spring 2018).

I taught a research course for one PhB student at the ANU in semester 2 2010, one in semester 2 2011, and one in semester 2 2013. One PhB combined teaching/research course for one student in semester 2 2012, and one in semester 2 2013. The PhB is a research-focused undergraduate degree for exceptionally able students.

Supervised one senior thesis (2018-19, Notre Dame)

Supervised four undergraduate honours dissertations, (full year 2012, 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014 ANU).

Supervised an honours coursework component for one student (Semester 2 2012, ANU), supervised honours coursework components for two students (Semester 2 2013, ANU), supervised honours coursework components for six students (Semester 1 2014 ANU).

Supervised two undergraduate dissertations, (S2010 University of Nottingham)

Supervised four undergraduate honours dissertations, (F2005 University of St Andrews)

Supervised a graduate independent study course, on minimalism about truth (F2001 Syracuse University)

Supervised a graduate independent study course, on the metaphysics of possible worlds (S2001 University of Queensland)
